EARLY MORNING SHOOTING AFFRAY

Blanche Penn, Angered by Brutal Treatment of her Sister, Shoots Brother-in-Law Twice. Wounded Man and the Woman Both Jailed.

Henry Goff, colored, who is employed as a laborer about town, was dangerously shot this morning about six-thirty, at his home on West High street, by his sister-in-law, Miss Blanche Penn.

It seems that Goff purchased a large revolver early last week, or some time during the week of the big celebration, and since that time has been drinking rather heavily and has at least four or five times treated his wife roughly if not brutally. Mrs. Goff who was a Miss Penn before marriage, is a small and rather delicate woman who has been working hard to help her husband get along and keep their little family together but in the last week she had been threatened by her husband that he would kill her. She alleges that to impress these threats he has hit her on the head with the butt of the revolver. Several days ago she managed to get the gun from Goff and hid it in a buffet drawer in the parlor of the Goff home.

This morning about half past six Goff again began to abuse his wife, who was preparing to go to work. Some words followed and Goff, who was not yet sober from his drinking of yesterday, hit his wife and knocked her down.

In the quarrel that preceded this blow Mrs. Goff had one of her teeth knocked out and received numerous black and blue marks over her arms and shoulders.

Blanche Penn, a sister, who stays with the Goffs ran into the room at this time and seeing her sister lying on the floor was at the same time told by Goff that, if she knew where his wife had hidden the revolver she should get it and he, Goff, would proceed to "fix" the remainder of the family, herself included.

Miss Penn ran down stairs, got the revolver and, in her excited state of mind, fired two shots each one taking effect, the first in the left wrist, the second a glancing shot in the right chest, the bullet embedding itself in the man's shoulder. After the shooting both Goff and Miss Penn ran into the street. Goff preceded up the alley to the Wabash Hotel where he fainted from exhaustion and loss of blood.

In the meantime County Detective Wilson had arrived on the scene and took Miss Penn in charge. Goff was hurried in a carriage out to the hospital of the Regulars, who are encamped just south of town, but was not given any treatment there. Not being able to get surgical attention for the man there, Mr. Wilson brought the man back to the county jail where he was given treatment by the jail physician, Dr. Dalbey.

Both Blanche Penn and Goff are now confined to jail awaiting a hearing.

TOOK 50 CHICKENS

Hen House of Mrs. J. F. Rider, Mont Alto Visited Saturday Night.

The activities of chicken thieves in the vicinity of Mont Alto, are so marked that things other than buck-shot are being rammed into the old muzzle-loaders. Saturday night the latest and largest haul was made. The chicken house of Mrs. J. F. Rider, of the Mont Alto Hotel, was entered some time between darkness and dawn and fifty valuable fowls were removed from the roost. It is stated that a pretty clear trail was left by the thieves, which was what a number of citizens of that village have been waiting for.

DRAGGED BY RAKE OVER HAY FIELD

Young Man Lately Recovered from Effects of Operation Thrown off Hay Rake and Dragged by Run-away Horses. Other Accidents.

Robert Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd, of near Orrtanna, was painfully hurt about half past three o'clock Tuesday afternoon when he was thrown from a hay rake and dragged over a field for some distance. Young Boyd suffered from pneumonia some months ago and was operated upon at the time. His shoulder on the same side as the place of the operation was the part to receive the most severe injuries and he is suffering considerably as a result.

The young man was driving two horses in the rake when one of the animals, annoyed by flies, kicked over the tongue and in a moment both were running away, the driver being thrown off the seat and in front of the rake. In this position he was dragged until a wheel broke and he was released. The horses ran on to the barn.

Dr. Trout, of Fairfield, was summoned, and after giving him preliminary treatment took the patient to the Chambersburg hospital where he was examined further. The extent of the injuries to his shoulder is not known and it is believed possible that it may be found necessary to remove the sufferer to a city hospital for further treatment.

Hiram C. Lady, of Arendtsville, had six teeth knocked out last Thursday when he was kicked by one of his horses. The accident occurred in Mr. Lady's stable as he was leading a horse by a stall which was occupied.

The horse in the stall kicked suddenly striking Mr. Lady on the mouth and knocking loose four lower teeth and knocking out six upper teeth. A gash was cut in the lips that required several stitches to close. Mr. Lady is suffering much pain and can take only liquid nourishment. Dr. William E. Wolf is the attending physician.

Guy Lawrence, a 17-year-old ball player, of Irishtown, had the misfortune to fall and break a bone in his right hand Sunday afternoon. He was engaged in a practice game of ball and when attempting to catch a high fly fell backward on his hand, breaking a bone.

D. WATSON ROWE

Former Judge Rowe, of Franklin County, Died on Tuesday.

D. Watson Rowe, who was for 20 years President Judge of the Franklin County Courts, died in Chambersburg Tuesday. He was 77 years old.

He served during the Civil War and at its close, as Colonel Rowe, he returned to Chambersburg and at once took up his profession in 1868, when he was 31 years of age he was commissioned by Governor Geary, additional law judge of the sixteenth judicial district, comprising the counties of Franklin, Fulton, Bedford and Somerset. In the autumn of that year he was elected for the full term of ten years. In 1874, the thirty-ninth district was formed, comprising the counties of Franklin and Fulton, of which he became president judge. He was re-elected in 1878 for a second term of ten years and served until January, 1889, when he retired, having served twenty-one years. After leaving the bench he resumed his practice at the bar and remained actively engaged until the past few years when because of failing health he was compelled to relinquish active practice.

In 1906 Governor Pennypacker appointed Mr. Rowe to the judgeship vacancy in Franklin county caused by the elevation of Judge Stewart to the State Supreme Court.

STUDENTS IN MIMIC BATTLE

The hills west of Gettysburg resounded with the rattle of musketry this morning as the college and university students, here for six weeks military training under the direction of Major McRae and a dozen army officers, engaged in one of their maneuvers, more popularly known as sham battles.

Wearing the khaki of the regular soldier and carrying the regulation army rifle the youths sallied forth early in the morning divided into opposing armies and each constituting the advance guard of other imaginary forces, with the idea in view of discovering the enemy. When the two bodies finally met the embryo soldiers rushed upon each other with all the fury of a real conflict and round after round of ammunition was fired until one or other of the forces was "annihilated."

Then all were marched back to the camp where they were informed just how many had been "killed" and "wounded" and why they suffered defeat. To-day's maneuver followed a tactical walk given yesterday in which the general problem of advance guard was mapped out. A progressive scheme of military instruction is being followed, starting with the preliminary of patrol until the present stage has been reached. From now on the work will go rapidly and the Regular Army detachments here for the school will participate in many of the problems.

When not engaged in this strenuous system of the war game instruction the young men are in one or other of the camps undergoing instruction in riding, manning guns, broadsword practice and other features of army training. The youths are rapidly becoming expert horsemen, taking hurdles with the skill of trained cavalrymen and riding caissons over the rough old Emmitsburg Pike without a quaver. Rifle practice and map making take up a portion of the time and, from reveille at 5:30 to taps at 10:30, the boys in khaki are given hard work.

Major McRae and Captain Van Hook, his chief of staff, are delighted with the progress made and see in the successful issue to this camp an enrollment many times as large next year.

Dr. Henry S. Drinker, president of Lehigh University, spent Tuesday night and to-day in the camp, and this morning addressed the students on the value of the training they are receiving and the high regard in which he holds the idea which they are helping to carry out. Dr. Drinker has been a strong advocate of the plan since it was first announced and one of his sons is enrolled for the six weeks' course.

MANY ASK FOR SOME SOUVENIR

Anniversary Commission Receives Requests from Various People for Many Mementoes of the Great Event. Paying Bills.

The Fiftieth Anniversary of Gettysburg Battle Commission, is again occupying its quarters at the State Capitol. The bills are being paid as fast as presented, and there yet remain but a few transportation bills and hotel bills to be paid, but they will be honored as soon as presented.

Col. Lewis E. Beiler, in charge of the State's part of the arrangements for the reunion, is receiving letters from all over the country paying the highest compliments to Pennsylvania for its part in the great reunion. These letters come from prominent Union and Confederate army officers, from governors of states who were here, from Grand Army posts and Confederate camps, all speaking in the most eulogistic terms of Pennsylvania's wonderful hospitality and as the majority of them say, "in recognition of the enormous task well done."

It will take some time yet to wind up affairs, and in the meantime the office will be kept open at the Capitol.

Many requests are being made to the Commission for souvenirs, a woman in Maine wanting one of the flags on the President's stand and a Southern veteran requesting one of tents that were used by the veterans, and offering to pay well for it.

In all of the letters received there was not one discordant note or word of complaint from any, and all are of an exceedingly complimentary character for the Commission and its officers, especially for Governor Tener for his thoughtfulness and Col. Beiler for his successful planning and carrying out the plans of what is regarded as the most wonderful reunion that has ever taken place in this country.

BILL TO PREVENT STRIKE A LAW

INJUNCTIONS ARE BARRED

New Act Signed by the President Provides For Either Three or Six Arbitrators.

Washington, July 16.—The Newlands bill, revising the Erdman law to provide arbitration of wage disputes in a manner satisfactory to railroads and their employees, passed the house without a roll call.

The bill was then hurried to the senate, which was waiting to pass it for President Wilson's signature. The senate passed the bill without a roll call and it was hurriedly prepared for transmission to the White House.

Later the bill reached the White House and soon afterward this statement was issued:

"The president signed the Newlands act as soon as it reached the White House and announced through his secretary, Mr. Tumulty, that he would proceed as soon as possible, consistent with the importance of the appointments, to the selection of the commissioners of mediation as provided in the act."

Chairman Clayton had no difficulty in securing unanimous consent to take up the Newlands bill immediately after the house had finished opening business.

"Enactment of this law will avert the greatest industrial struggle that has been threatened in our history," said he.

The senate took the bill up at once for passage. No objection was made to Senator Newlands' request for immediate consideration.

One amendment aims to make impossible any construction that would authorize courts by injunction or otherwise to compel an employer to labor. The other was to provide details for filing the awards with district courts.

In its perfected form the new law would furnish machinery expected to open up the possibilities of arbitration and federal mediation.

The new act would establish the United States board of mediation and conciliation to consist of a federal commissioner of mediation and conciliation and two other officials of the government, to be designated by the president.

This board would be appealed to if a railroad labor dispute by either party and would first use its best efforts by mediation and conciliation to bring the disputants to an agreement. Failure would be followed by an attempt on the part of the board to "induce the parties to submit their controversy to arbitration," and in case arbitration was agreed to special boards of either three or six mediators would be chosen by the railroads and the employees.

Arbitration under the new law would be undertaken only after a definite agreement had been made by both parties to abide by the decision of the arbitration board for a fixed period.

The argument made by the trainmen's and conductors' representatives for an independent tribunal to settle labor disputes also became known. Mr. Garretson, head of the Order of Railway Conductors, said the demand for an independent commission had been begun before the department of labor was created and therefore his association meant no reflection on the secretary of labor in opposing the proposal to have the mediation board under the jurisdiction of any government department. The railroad presidents, it was said, had little to say at the White House conference, but acquiesced in the desire for an independent board.

SAYS TROOPER ATTACKED HER

Member of Colored Tenth U. S. Cavalry Sought on Girl's Charge.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 16.—A man believed to be a member of the Tenth United States cavalry, one of the colored cavalry regiments which is on its way from Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont, to Winchester, Va., attacked Miss Aurora Bruckart after he had knocked her escort, Harry Mohler, unconscious.

The girl's screams alarmed the assailant and he fled. Colonel J. C. Gresham, commanding the troopers, had the men assembled, but Miss Bruckart could not pick out her assailant.

One member of the regiment was missing, and he is being sought by the police of Carlisle, where the cavalrymen camped.

Suffragist Weds Rich Dutchman.

London, July 16.—Miss Inez Milholland, the New York woman suffragist, was married in this city to Eugene Bolschevin, a wealthy Hollander, whose home is in Amsterdam. Miss Milholland is the daughter of John Milholland, a wealthy New York lawyer, and is herself a practicing lawyer, with offices in the financial district of New York. She has been prominent in woman's suffrage work since her graduation from Vassar several years ago.

Alligator Scuttles a Boat.

Lenox, Mass., July 16.—While Daniel Clifford and Michael Hogan were fishing on Wood's pond their boat was scuttled and both men were thrown into the water by an alligator supposed to have escaped from New Lenox.

Granted a Divorce.

MRS. CORNWALLIS-WEST WINS

Former Lady Randolph Churchill is Granted a Divorce.

London, July 16.—A divorce decree was granted by Justice Evans to Mrs. George Cornwallis-West, who was formerly Lady Randolph Churchill.

The testimony was devoid of anything approaching the sensational. The divorce was granted upon the ground of misconduct by Cornwallis-West and on the charge of desertion. Evidence was given that Cornwallis-West stayed at the Great Western hotel, Paddington, London, with a woman who was not his wife.

There was no defense and the decree was really granted on default. The plaintiff appeared in a blue serge suit, with a black hat. She was very pale, but maintained her composure. The case took exactly seven minutes of the court's time. Mrs. Cornwallis-West will probably resume the title of Lady Randolph Churchill.

U. S. CORPORATIONS EARNINGS INCREASE

Washington, July 16.—Corporations of the United States earned $3,304,000,000 above all expenses during the calendar year of 1912, exceeding all previous records since the enactment of the corporation tax law by $400,000,000.

This banner showing was divulged by the compilation of assessments made by Commissioner William H. Osborn, of the internal revenue bureau, under the corporation tax law.

The increased prosperity of the corporations is expected to yield the federal government more than $36,000,000, including $3,000,000 of omitted taxes for previous years. This represents the greatest amount of corporation taxes ever assessed by the treasury, exceeding the returns of the previous year by $7,000,000. Most of the assessments already have been paid, but some of them will be the subject of litigation.

L. F. Speer, chief of the corporation tax division of the treasury, said the corporations' earnings indicated that business conditions of 1912 were better than any previous recorded year. The great net growth of $400,000,000 was made, he added, despite increases in incorporate indebtedness and in wage scales.

The total number of corporations during 1912 was about 310,000, an increase of seven per cent over 1911, and compared with increases of six per cent in 1911 over 1910, and less than four per cent in 1910 over 1909. About 15,000 corporations failed to make returns for 1912 earnings and are subject to penalties.

MULHALL SHOWS LONG BLACK LIST

Names of Congressmen Who Were to be Defeated.

HELPED BEAT TOM JOHNSON

Washington, July 16.—The examination of Martin M. Mulhall, the former lobbyist of the National Association of Manufacturers, before the senate lobby investigating committee, brought out a memorandum which Mulhall said was a "black list" of congressmen. Mulhall thought it had been prepared by former Representative Watson. It follows:

"Watson: Here's a list for you to knock out: Chandler, Mississippi; Hamilton, Missouri; Danforth, New York; Payne, New York; Lever, South Carolina; Graham, Illinois; Lobeck, Nebraska; Beall, Texas; Stephens, John H., Texas; Bowman, C. C., Pennsylvania; Lloyd, Missouri; Clark, Missouri; Humphreys, Mississippi; Carter, Oklahoma; Brantley, W. G., Hull, Tennessee; Bulkeley, Ohio; Burgess, Texas; Towner, Iowa; Pocht, Pennsylvania; Gardner, Massachusetts; Henry George, Jr., New York; Henry, R. L., Texas; Hinds, Maine; Lindbergh, Minnesota; Rees, R. R., Kansas; Reilly, T. L., Connecticut; Foster, Vermont."

The political success of the National Association of Manufacturers in 1907 caused it to decide to play a part in the selection of a president the following year, according to a letter written by Fred C. Schwedman, secretary to the late James W. Van Cleave, president of the association, to Colonel M. M. Mulhall.

In other letters it was indicated that Colonel Mulhall, as agent of the manufacturers, had close political relations with Governor Haines, of Maine; Representatives Barthold and Cowdrey, of Missouri, and that the association was instrumental in defeating Tom L. Johnson for re-election as mayor of Cleveland.

Mulhall was examined on letters written in 1907 to the late James W. Van Cleave, president of the National Association of Manufacturers. One from the late Vice President Sherman, then a member of the house, arranged for a meeting with Van Cleave and Mulhall in New York on July 20, 1907.

In a letter to Mr. Sherman on July 16 Mulhall wrote: "I have just returned from the west and I feel that I have put the ball a-rolling in Indiana so that it will help Mr. Watson to re-nomination."

"There are some large things brewing and there is every indication that in our tariff campaign we have with us the majority of the Republican congressmen and senators and men higher up than that, too."

Schwedman wrote to Mulhall Sept. 5, 1907, bringing in the name of former President Taft, then secretary of war.

"You saw, of course, where Secretary Taft referred to the National Association of Manufacturers at great length in his Columbus address. If we succeed in getting the council plans thoroughly established then our power for good will grow right along until next year during the presidential campaign we will be a factor of national importance that cannot be overlooked."

Schwedman wanted to know more about the association's tariff and reciprocity activities.

Mulhall explained that while Marshall Cushing was secretary of the association the greatest efforts were made to conduct political maneuvers secretly. Men were referred to by numbers. Mulhall was No. 11, Congressman Littlefield No. 8 and Sherman No. 9.

In 1907, at the direction of Van Cleave, Mulhall went to Maine to make a complete canvass of the Republican political situation. Before this Mulhall had been in St. Louis, Mo., to aid in breaking a strike in the Blue Ribbon shoe factory.

Thomas J. Lyons, Republican, of Augusta, Me., who co-operated with Mulhall in electing Congressman Littlefield, received the first certificate of character the witness has bestowed. "I think he was absolutely honest," said Mulhall. "He was not in my employ."

A letter to W. D. Sayles, of Cleveland, O., dated July 16, 1907, showed that the Manufacturers' association was prepared to aid in a campaign to defeat Mayor Tom L. Johnson for re-election in Cleveland. Mulhall was in Cleveland doing political work during the Johnson campaign of 1907.

"I went there at the direction of the National Association of Manufacturers, and we beat Johnson," explained Mulhall.

PRINCE ARTHUR TO WED PRINCESS ALEXANDRA

Betrothal of King George's First Cousin Announced.

London, July 16.—The betrothal is announced of Prince Arthur of Connaught and Princess Alexandra Victoria, the Duchess of Fife.

Prince Arthur Frederick Patrick Albert is the son of the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, governor general of India. He was born Jan. 13, 1883, and has served as personal aide to King Edward VII and to King George V.

Princess Alexandra, Duchess of Fife, is the elder daughter of the late Duke of Fife and Princess Louise Victoria, the daughter of King Edward VII. She was born May 17, 1891.

Princess Alexandra, Duchess of Fife, has a brilliant record of thrilling experience in December, 1911, when the Peninsular and Oriental liner Delhi stranded in a storm on the coast of Morocco near Cape Spart. The Duke of Fife, the princess royal and the Princesses Alexandra and Maud were rescued in lifeboats. A few weeks later the Duke of Fife died as a result of the hardships he had endured.

The civil court upheld the testator's will, which his sister and other relatives had sought to have set aside on the plea that he was insane when he made it. It was because he was an ardent royalist that the testator chose King Alfonso as a beneficiary.

BULGARIA'S ENEMIES.

THREE ARMIES NOW INVADING BULGARIA

Servia Wants to Dictate Peace in Sofia.

Belgrade, July 16.—Three armies of invasion are now on Bulgarian soil. The Roumanian army, under Crown Prince Ferdinand, which crossed the Danube, has halted its march upon Sofia and is co-operating with Greek and Servian forces which also have invaded Bulgaria.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says that Bulgaria has informed Russia that she unconditionally accepts any peace terms which Russia, acting for Greece and Servia, may present.

Bulgaria has also consented to allow Roumania to annex any extent of territory on condition that Roumanian troops do not enter Sofia.

King Peter threatens to "dictate terms of Balkan peace in Sofia," the capital of Bulgaria, unless the Bulgarian government immediately agrees to the preliminary draft of a treaty of peace which has already been drawn up by Premier Pasich, of Servia, and Premier Venizelos, of Greece.

Greece and Servia are in accord on the terms of peace to which Bulgaria must submit. In a general way they include the following:

Greece to hold Salonika as a Greek port and to occupy about 5000 square miles of territory in southern Macedonia.

The railway from Salonika to Mitrovia to be internationalized.

Servia to have a commercial outlet on the Aegean sea and to have full permission for the construction of a ship canal from the Danube southward. Servia to have permission for the construction of a railway to the Adriatic.

Bulgaria to give up all Greek and Servian prisoners of war.

Servia to occupy all the fertile district stretching from the southern Servia boundary southward and eastward from the Vardar river to Demir Hissar, thence eastward to the Rhodope mountains.

WANTS TO KNOW PAYBRYANWANTS

Senator Bristow Introduces Resolution.

"COMMONER" TO EXPLAIN

President Wilson Called Upon to Name Sum Sufficient For Secretary of State.

Washington, July 16.—Senator Bristow introduced a resolution, aimed at Secretary Bryan's recent statement that he was obliged to go on a lecture tour because his salary of $12,000 a year was insufficient, calling in President Wilson to report what salary would be sufficient to enable Mr. Bryan to remain permanently at his post.

The Bristow resolution called attention to Bryan's predecessors, who served with salaries ranging from $3500 to $5000, and declared that "no one of them was compelled to neglect the duties of his office because of the meagreness of the salary."

It stated that the salary was increased to $12,000 in 1911, but that "the great Commoner who now occupies that office has stated that the salary is not sufficient to enable him to live comfortably and that he is compelled to neglect his duties and go on the lecture platform to earn a living."

Attention was called further to the Mexican, Japanese, British and other international questions before the state department which, the resolution alleged, were not receiving full consideration. It ended by requesting the president to give prompt attention to the matter and report to congress what salary would be sufficient so that congress could "relieve the country of the great loss it suffers in being deprived of the services" of the secretary of state during the time he may be in the lecture platform.

Reading of the resolution was greeted by broad smiles on the Republican side of the chamber. Senators Kern, Lewis and other Democrats were on their feet before it was concluded and objected to its consideration. Under the rules of the senate it went over.

Secretary Bryan, angered by the criticism directed at his assertion that he must lecture to meet his expenses, made a short preliminary explanation. "I did not mean to find fault with the present government salaries," he said, "and I do not blame the high cost of living." He said that his salary of $12,000 is not adequate to enable him to maintain himself a cabinet officer and his home at Lincoln, Neb., and added: "My explanation of the reason will make the whole matter clear, but it will not touch upon the high cost of living."

LOST IN MOUNTAIN

Five Boys Lost Near Pen Mar. Finally Get Home.

Lost in the dense thickets of the Blue Ridge mountains near Buzzard's Roost, was the experience of Messrs. David Simons, Lewis Sandler, John R. Lashley, Jr., Herman Sandler and Harry Rosenbloom, Saturday. All of these boys are spending the summer with their parents at Pen Mar. The boys started out Saturday morning for a hike through the woods. After traveling along until noon they discovered that they were traversing territory with which they were unfamiliar. After considerable roaming about they climbed a high pinnacle on the mountain and managed to get their bearings.

HOG SUGGESTIONS.

A pig gives the best returns from dairy products while young. With the growing pigs thrift, not hunger, should prompt to exercise.

When pigs should be weaned should be determined as much on how they are eating and growing as upon their age.

As a general proposition it may be said that the sow that has pigs before she is a year old will disappoint her owner.

A cough in a hog can usually be traced to one of three things—dust, worms or cold, but there is no telling what it may result in.

Skim milk when fed in connection with grain makes a very valuable food for hogs at all periods of their growth, but particularly so during the earlier period.

Beat two eggs well and put them into a lined steppan with two ounces of grated Parmesan cheese, stir over the fire with a wooden spoon until the mixture is thick. Fry slices of bread in boiling butter till they are a rich golden brown, drain, spread them with a layer of the cheese mixture, place a pimento stuffed olive on each slice and serve hot on a hot plate.

Egyptian Justice.
In ancient Egypt all court business was carried on in writing in order that the decision might not be influenced by oratory or personal appeal. The laws lay before the judges upon a table, and the accused declared in writing how he had been injured, whereupon the defendant stated in writing what he had to say. Then came a rejoinder from each party to the case, after which the judges deliberated among themselves until they had hit upon the proper legal penalty for the party who had in the meantime been adjudged guilty. This point being reached, the president of the judges touched with an image of Thmes the "Goddess of Truth," the manuscript of the guilty pleader, and the case was over.--New York American.

What a Mango Tastes Like.
The first thing to do when you reach Ceylon is to eat a mango. Will it be as good as you are told it is? Yes, it is---better. First you think it's an apricot, and then you think it's a banana; no, fresher---a peach, a strawberry---and then comes a delicious sharp, fresh, aromatic after taste slightly tinged with turpentine, but not bitter. Then you get all the taste at once, and you know that the mango is like nothing else but its own incomparable self. It has all these different tastes at once simultaneously.--Metropolitan.

The Idler Works Hard.
Work, ideally, should be congenial, fruitful, and the worker aware of his worth to the world. Nobody works harder than the idler. He has on his hands the dire task of killing time. Knowing the awfulness of vacuity, he fills the day with a semblance of activity and while gnawing at his peace is conscious of the barren folly of it all. The finest argument for real work is the spectacle of its counterfeit presentment.--Richard Burton in the Belman

Long Felt Want.
Yeast---I see a man has patented a head rest to be fastened to the arm of a car seat to aid the comfort of passengers obliged to sleep in day coaches. Crimousneck---What is most needed in day coaches is a chin rest for the man who happens to sit next to you.--Yonkers Statesman.

Warmth In Snow.
Snow is warm by virtue of its light and woolly texture. But it is also warm on account of its whiteness. Had snow been black it would have absorbed the heat of the sun and melted quickly. Instead, it reflects heat, and the reflected heat falls upon bodies above the snow, while the warmth of the earth is preserved beneath it.

The Surprise.
A man told his daughter that if she learned to cook he would give her a surprise. She learned the art, and he surprised her by discharging the servant girl.

TOWN AUTOS IN TOUR OF COUNTY

Sixty Gettysburg People Visit Towns in Northern and Western Ends of the County in Run Combining Business and Pleasure.

Headed by a drum corps, and with pennants fluttering and colors flying, Gettysburg's Chautauqua boosters motored in thirteen cars through the northern and western ends of Adams County Thursday afternoon and evening advertising the coming week of attractions and receiving hearty welcomes on all sides.

The following allowed the use of their cars for the event: Dr. E. H. Markley, C. S. Reaser, Murray Long, E. P. Miller, William H. Johns, William F. Codori, Jesse Snyder, J. G. Slonaker, C. Wm. Beales, Wesley I. Oyler, John Walter, S. E. Waltman and Wm. Arch McClean. About sixty persons took part in the run.

Half past three saw the departure of the cars from Centre Square. All were decorated with large red and white banners announcing the coming Chautauqua and at every farm house along the line of travel literature was thrown out. Souvenir buttons were distributed and posters placed at conspicuous points along the roadside.

When Biglerville was reached a committee of citizens, headed by Postmaster H. U. Walter, extended greetings to the Gettysburgians and a stay of fifteen minutes was made in the town. The boosters were made to feel still further at home by frequent expressions of welcome waved by W. E. Kapp, from his office in the Thomas Building.

Through the heart of the apple district the run proceeded to Bendersville where another cordial greeting was in store for the motorists. The drum corps played with special emphasis at the Square in this city while the machines divided into squads and traversed various sections of the town advertising the Chautauqua. A half hour was given to Bendersville, a number taking advantage of the opportunity to visit the fine new bank building and places of business. S. B. Gochnaur became so enthused by the appearance of his Gettysburg friends that he left his business, got out his new Stanley Steamer and joined the run.

Aspers was the next place of interest and here a stop was made long enough to bill the town and turn the column of cars about for the return through Bendersville and Biglerville to Arendtsville. On this lap of the journey Mr. Gochnaur saw a fine opportunity to display his prowess in dust raising and he led the procession, making the occupants of the cars, which pressed him closely, decidedly uncomfortable. Their one delight was registered when a whiff of wind caught the Bendersville merchant's cap, tossed it high in the air and deposited it just where all the other cars could leave their imprint. Mr. Gochnaur was too much concerned in his demonstration of driving to notice the absence of his headgear until Arendtsville was reached.

At this beautiful little town County Commissioner Noah R. Beamer was chief on the reception committee, with other residents joining him in announcing their intention of coming in to hear the Florentine Band or to listen to Judge Lindsey or one of the other orators of the week.

The trip from Arendtsville to Cash-town through more apple country, over mountain roads and past such fine farms as those of the Sheely Brothers and Robert Shull was one of the delights of the day and Cashtown was reached all too quickly. At this village which boasts a park, a civic league, a library, beautiful gardens and well kept homes the motorists divided, one section going on to Fairfield to take supper at the Mansion House and the other remaining at the Rock Top hotel in Cashtown for the evening meal. Both places served the typical country ham and eggs supper much to the satisfaction of the hungry Gettysburgians.

In Fairfield the drum corps paraded the streets and at both towns stores and places of business were visited with the program booklets. Division number one returned to Gettysburg direct from Fairfield while the other section came in the pike by way of McKnightstown and Seven Stars.

The arrival in town was registered about eight o'clock where all were heartily thanked by W. L. Jenkins, of Swarthmore, representative of the Chautauqua, who had in charge the advertising end of the tour.

HEARINGS GIVEN IN COUNTY JAIL

Henry Goff Removed to York Hospital after Hearing. Blanche Penn and he Both Held for Court. Her Bail Placed at $1000.

At a hearing Wednesday afternoon, before Squire Hill in the county jail, Henry Goff, who was seriously shot in the chest and left arm by Blanche Penn earlier in the day was held for court on a charge of assault and battery brought against him by his wife, Sadie Goff. Blanche Penn was also held for court, the charge being assault and battery with intent to kill. Wednesday evening Goff was taken to the York Hospital.

The testimony given by the injured man and that of the witnesses against him agreed closely in that Goff had always been industrious and provided for the needs of his family until within the last two weeks, when he again started to drink after having given it up about a year ago through the influence of his wife. Blanche Penn, Mrs. Goff, Frank Penn, Lizzie Cuff and others testified that Goff had been rough and some times brutal to his wife several times in the last week or two.

Goff's wife testified that on the morning of the shooting she was dressing to go to work at the Hotel Gettysburg where she had been employed previously and that her husband was rough to her and would not allow her to leave the room. It was after he had knocked her down and before she got up from the floor that her sister shot him just as she came to the top of the stairs.

Blanche testified that she shot him "on purpose" and when asked by the Squire why she did it said that she had "shot him to keep him from hurting her sister anymore". She also said that Goff had never threatened her, Blanche Penn, or found fault with her conduct but that she had often heard him threaten his wife.

Both were committed to jail, Blanche in default of $1000 bail. Goff was suffering greatly from his wounds and was taken to York at 5:50 in the evening for further treatment.

WILL IMPROVE NEW STATE PIKE

State Highway Department to Start Work on Newly Acquired Pike from Gettysburg to Bedford County.

Steps are being taken by Chief Engineer S. D. Foster, of the State Highway Department to start immediate repair work on the portion of the turnpike between Gettysburg and the Bedford county line recently taken by the State under condemnation proceedings.

This link in the road between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh through the southern counties amounts to about seventy miles and passes through Adams, Franklin and Fulton counties. It is one of the most used roads in the State between the two big cities and it is the hope to get it into shape for better traveling this fall.

The repair work will be undertaken by the road superintendents through whose districts it passes and they will assemble their forces at once. An inspection of the highway has been made and it is known what must be done.

This section of highway is the first to be condemned by the State Highway Department for main highway purposes and was the subject of almost a year's litigation. The Supreme Court recently affirmed the State's right to take it.

LINEMAN CAUGHT BY LIVE WIRE

Thurmont Man Badly Burned when he Touches Live Wire. Was New to his Position. Removed to Frederick Hospital for Treatment.

Cover Morrison, aged 30, of Thurmont, was near death through electrocution on Wednesday when current from a wire carrying 33,000 volts coursed through his body.

Two days ago Mr. Morrison was employed at the sub-station of the Hagerstown and Frederick Railway Company, at Thurmont. While the overseer was in some other portion of the station, young Morrison was put to work to clean the machinery in the plant. He had been at work for some time and the overseer was attracted by a fall and ran to where Morrison was working and found him unconscious upon the floor.

Morrison remained unconscious only a few moments but revived in a very dazed condition. Dr. M. A. Birely, of Thurmont, was called and worked with the injured man, and gave him temporary relief. Before he left Thurmont Morrison was fully conscious, and spoke concerning the accident, saying he was standing on top of the transformers and was dusting about the place. He apparently was suffering but little, but on account of the severe burns, it was thought best to take him to the Frederick City Hospital.

Dr. Birely described Morrison's injuries as consisting of two ugly burns on the foot, and burns on the back and shoulder. The burns on the foot are very deep, one going through the ball of the foot and the other near the middle. The burns in the back and shoulder do not appear so deep. In falling Morrison sustained two ugly cuts about the face, one being at the bridge of the nose. These wounds bled freely.

MYERS MAKES GOOD

Pitching Great Ball in North Carolina League.

"Jim" Myers, who pitched ball for the York Springs base ball team in 1912, is called the "Iron Man" of the North Carolina league, his latest right to be called such was his twirling of an 18 inning game for his team the Raleigh, against Durham, and winning his game by the score of 4 to 3. The Raleigh Times in speaking of the game says:—"Till Jeff grows as tall as Mutt, till the sands of the desert grow cold, till World's series are won by the Browns and Braves, will the magnificent pitching of "Chief" Elmer Glenn Myers, of York Springs, Pennsylvania, Wednesday afternoon, when he heaved, twirled and pitched through eighteen long innings and defeated the snorting Durham Bull 4 to 3, be held in fondest memory by the base ball favorites of this burg. It was great, wonderful, magnificent and superb.

"Hereafter is Chief Myers, the Iron Man. "In 2001—fan to fanette—Now when Myers pitched that eighteen inning affair for Raleigh in 1913."

WILSON STIRRED TO ACT ON MEXICO

MAY HALT BRYAN'S TRIP

Wilson Administration May Now Be Compelled to Recognize the Huerta Government.

Washington, July 17. — President Wilson, after a conference with Secretary Bryan over the latest aspects of the Mexican situation presented by the inquiries of foreign powers, particularly Germany, it is said, as to the attitude of the United States, ordered Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson at Mexico City to proceed to Washington immediately for a conference.

A dispatch from Mexico City announced that the ambassador would start for Washington at once.

Officials at Washington believe that the almost total interruption of railroad traffic between Mexico City and the United States will force the ambassador to make his trip by water. He is not expected to reach Washington before July 23 at the earliest.

"Ambassador Wilson has been asked to come to Washington to confer personally with the president regarding the situation in Mexico. During his absence the embassy will be left in charge of the first secretary, Mr. O'Shaunessy."

It is believed in official and diplomatic circles in Washington that an important announcement of the attitude of the United States in the pending situation will follow the ambassador's conferences with the president and Secretary Bryan.

The president's action following closely the unofficial announcement that some of the foreign powers, that already have recognized the Huerta government were pressing for some indication of this government's attitude toward the continued disorders in Mexico leads to that belief.

Secretary Bryan positively declined to add any information to his bare announcement of Ambassador Wilson's call to Washington.

It is assumed that the administration desires to learn from the ambassador directly what influences actuated the foreign diplomatic representatives in Mexico when they jointly agreed to address their governments with what amounted to a formal complaint against the attitude of the United States in its relations with the Huerta regime which it thus far has shown no inclination to recognize.

President Wilson has kept an open mind on the subject and is thought to feel himself bound to adhere to the policy announced early in his administration of lending moral encouragement only to such governments in Latin America as were founded upon constitutional law and practice.

It is understood nevertheless, that he is ready to give due weight to any representations Ambassador Wilson may care to make.

The president has had the benefit of private reports from several of his personal friends who have traveled in Mexico recently but they were unofficial and not sufficient to form the basis of formal attitude if there were to be any change in policy.

Secretary Bryan was asked whether the coming of Ambassador Wilson to Washington would change his projected lecture tour.

"The newspaper men," he replied, "might have assumed that my lecture dates would not interfere with business instead of assuming that they would. All my lecture dates were made subject to cancellation."

FINED $25 FOR SLIT SKIRT

Court Room Crowded For Miss Flossy Brown's Hearing.

Richmond, Va., July 17.—The S. R. O. sign was hung out on Judge Crutcher's court room when Miss Flossy Brown appeared to tell all about how she scandalized Mayor Ainslie and other citizens by wearing a slit skirt right out in public.

Miss Brown's defense was that the slit was a dressmaker's error—that it had been only basted instead of securely sewed, and that it came unfastened in walking. She paid $25 fine after Mayor Ainslie had testified that it revealed too much stocking.

TO PROSECUTE THE GUGGENHEIMS

Obtained Divorce by Fraud and Collusion.

Chicago July 17.—Declaring that the divorce of William Guggenheim, millionaire mining man, from Grace Brown Guggenheim-Wahl, in 1901, was obtained by fraud, collusion and criminal conspiracy, Circuit Judges Heard, Windes and Baldwin, sitting en banc, instructed United States Attorney Hoynes to proceed in criminal action against the alleged parties to the fraud.

"Residents of Illinois cannot be prosecuted because the statute of limitations precludes action," said the United States attorney, "but we can proceed against the principals to the suit, who are non-residents and therefore cannot profit by the statute of limitations."

Mrs. Guggenheim-Wahl, seeking in various suits to have the divorce declared invalid because in obtaining it she swore falsely that she was a resident of Illinois, testified that she acted on advice of counsel for her husband. The divorce was granted in 1901 and Mr. Guggenheim subsequently married again.

Detectives Hunt Missing Money Bound For Buffalo Bank.

Sunbury, Pa., July 17.—Somewhere between here and Philadelphia, it is said, a package containing $10,000 in gold pieces, disappeared from a car on the Pennsylvania railroad.

The money was being shipped from the Philadelphia mint to a bank in Buffalo, N. Y. It has been missing for a week, and railroad and private detectives, together with United States secret service operatives, have been working on the case. They are reticent and deny the fact that the money is gone.

It is declared that the money was lost in transit and it has been traced as far as Harrisburg. It is also said that they believe it was stolen somewhere between Williamsport and Harrisburg.

New York, July 17.—Mrs. Florence Louise Patterson, of East Rutherford, N. J., appeared in a Jersey City court to continue her suit for separation against Frederick H. Patterson, a Newark manufacturer.

"He is the meanest man," exclaimed the angry young wife. "Why, he sent me the first $1 you told him to pay me each week, and how did he send it? He sent me 400 cents in a box, and I was kept busy for an hour seeing whether it was all there."

JOHNS RELEASED IN LAKE TRAGEDY

Gains Liberty on Habeas Corpus Writ.

THE MYSTERY IS UNSOLVED

Commonwealth Was Unable to Make Out a Case Against Fiancee of Alice Crispell.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 17.—Inability of the commonwealth to make out a case strong enough to hold the defendant for the grand jury caused Judge Fuller to discharge from custody Herbert Johns, who has been confined in the county jail for nine days, charged with the murder of Alice Crispell, whose body was found in Harvey's lake on the morning of July 7.

Although the district attorney and his detectives followed every clue and called every witness that knew anything about the case, including the members who composed the party at the lake on the evening of July 4, no new evidence was presented at the hearing and the accused received his liberty on motion of his attorney, F. A. McGuigan, who held that in the first instance a murder had not been proven, and in the second instance that defendant had not been connected as principal or accomplice in her death.

Two of the physicians who assisted at the second autopsy declared that death was due to drowning, and that they found nothing that would indicate foul play.

So the case against Johns fell, leaving the causes which led Alice Crispell into the lake, whether by suicide, design or by force, as much a mystery as ever. Whether the mystery will ever be cleared is uncertain, although the district attorney said the investigation would be continued if promising clues were found.

Anthony Dane, clerk at a hotel in Wilkes-Barre, produced the register showing where Johns and Alice Crispell registered as man and wife, saying they were married at Atlantic City. The clerk said he asked to see the wedding ring, but the girl said it was too much bother to take off her glove.

VETOES TEACHERS' BILL

Tener Says It Would Tend to Impair Efficiency of Schools.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 17.—The Snyder senate bill, providing that a teacher who has served ten years continuously in any one school district shall be employed permanently by that district without any reduction in salary, was vetoed by Governor Tener with twelve other bills.

In his veto of the Snyder bill the governor says: "By this bill it is sought to compel school boards to employ certain school teachers for life, an attempt upon the part of a school board to exercise its own discretion with reference to the further employment of certain teachers would subject officers to prosecution for misdemeanor."

"It is not clear that the bill might not be construed to apply to every school teacher, who at any time has taught for ten years in any one school district."

The governor says his chief objection is that the bill might tend to impair the efficiency of the public schools.

$500,000 A YEAR FOR LOBBY WORK

REVEALS TARIFF ACTIVITY

Washington, July 17. — A fund of $500,000 a year, raised by the National Council for Industrial Defense—an adjunct of the National Association of Manufacturers—for opposing legislation the manufacturers did not favor, was described to the senate lobby investigating committee by Colonel Martin M. Mulhall.

Mulhall testified that he had no personal knowledge of the existence of such a fund, but declared that a collector for the organization had recently given those figures to the New York World.

"I often have thought and have suggested," said Mulhall, "that the council should be investigated by the post-office department. If it were investigated, I feel that the gentlemen who run it will have a hard time accounting for the money collected."

Mulhall swore that money had been paid to him from the fund for political purposes, but did not explain what the purposes were.

The erstwhile "field agent" told of the work of the National Association of Manufacturers in behalf of a tariff commission.

The first definite connection between the National Association of Manufacturers and the Taft presidential campaign was disclosed in a letter written by Mulhall on March 21, 1908.

Mulhall said he had a long interview with Arthur I. Vorys, Taft's campaign manager, who assured Mulhall, in response to questions, that Taft favored a tariff commission, and that without doubt the Manufacturers' association could name members of the campaign committee, and if Taft was elected could, without a doubt, name a cabinet member. John S. Van Cleave, of St. Louis, was the man Schwedtmann intended to urge for the cabinet.

"The National Association of Manufacturers wanted a tariff commission of which H. E. Miles, of Racine, Wis., and Fred C. Schwedtmann should be members," said Mulhall. "Miles was the head of the tariff committee of the Manufacturers' association which was named to come to Washington to lobby for a tariff commission, but he was so radical he was finally driven from the committee and was replaced by Mr. Tompkins."

A letter was read from J. W. Van Cleave, the president of the National Association of Manufacturers, whose secretary Schwedtmann was, in which Van Cleave noted the opposition of the Home Market club, of Boston, to the tariff commission. "The Home Market club did not want a tariff commission," said Mulhall, "but the Manufacturers' association did want one."

Miles wrote to S. E. Swayne, of Richmond, Ind., who led him to support Watson, although Miles admitted that "personally I do not like the man, but I would like less to have him succeeded by a man no better in any way and wrong in labor ways."

Mulhall said he met Van Cleave and Schwedtmann on a train passing through Indianapolis, Jan. 19, 1908, told them of the Watson campaign and spoke about $100,000 being needed. On Jan. 19 Mulhall wrote Schwedtmann:

"Mr. Watson Friday told me that if there was any danger of any class legislation being brought up while he was absent from Washington to have Mr. Emery see Senator Hemenway. He also told me to write Emery and say that Speaker Cannon would receive him at any time and that he could talk freely and fully to the speaker and that everything would be all right."

Mulhall said that at a conference in January, 1908, with the political managers for Watson it was suggested that D. M. Parry become active in that state. Mulhall said this suggestion was frowned upon because Parry was "too well known to the labor people." Parry was a former president of the Manufacturers' association.

"Was not Parry a protégé of Senator Beveridge?" asked Senator Nelson. "No, senator, no. Senator Beveridge publicly acknowledged he was a protégé of Parry," replied Mulhall.

RAILROADS AND MEN RATIFY PACT

Ask Wilson Who Will Constitute the Board.

New York, July 17.—Representatives of the eastern railroads and of their trainmen and conductors, in joint meeting here, formally ratified the agreement to settle their differences under the Newlands law and sent a telegram to President Wilson requesting him to inform them whom he would appoint as a board of mediation and conciliation.

The new phase of the arbitration proceedings whether the roads will insist on presenting their grievances against the men while the latter argue for higher pay, was the subject of discussion between the conference committee of railroad managers and representatives of the unions. The meeting was called at the request of W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and A. B. Garretson, president of the Order of Railway Conductors.

Since agreeing to arbitration under the Newlands act the labor leaders have been scrutinizing the railroads' letter yielding to arbitration and are worried lest the words "submit to arbitration all questions" contain something in the nature of a joker. To determine just how broad a hearing the roads expect they asked for the conference.

JAPANESE WORKMEN MOBBED IN COLORADO

Driven From R. R. Camp With Threats of Lynching.

Steamboat Springs, Colo., July 17.—A construction gang, working on the extension of the Denver & Salt Lake railroad, attempted to drive from the grading camp a party of Japanese laborers who were brought here last Tuesday.

The Japanese came from Denver and had been housed in box cars at the lower end of the town.

Early in the morning a gang went to the Japanese camp, three of them impersonating officers to gain an entrance into the cars. As soon as the doors were opened the gang of men rushed into the cars with ropes and revolvers and ordered the Japanese to dress, giving them notice that they must cease work on the railroad grade and leave that part of the country. They then conducted the Japanese about two mile south of town and told them if they returned the ropes would be used.

Sheriff Chivington arrested three of the ringleaders and has placed deputies around the bunk cars to prevent the members of the mob from attempting to carry out their threats. Officials of the road insist that the Japanese shall be allowed to work because of the scarcity of white labor, construction work having been delayed because of the lack of laborers.

Owing to the unfavorable conditions which have existed in the apple market since last fall, the season has been a disappointing one, and this is true of many sections in the west where, in addition to the usual heavy expense incident to bringing the crop through the packing house, there has been a heavy expense growing out of transportation and cold storage charges. In some instances growers have had to dig up money to pay freight charges, the amount received for the fruit not being sufficient to meet this and the other necessary expenses.

A Stowaway Deserter

By ALBERT T. KENYON

The second officer of the ship Albacross running between New York and Havana one morning walked aft where the captain was standing talking with a passenger. The mate was conducting a stowaway who had just been found concealed in the hold. The latter was a man about twenty years old and appeared to be healthy and strong. He was partly dressed in the uniform of a United States soldier. On his face was a bitter, rebellious look.

"Who are you?" asked the captain sternly.

"A deserter."

"You don't seem ashamed of being one."

"Nor should I, seeing that I had a tyrant for a captain."

"Well, you'll have to work your way."

The deserter-stowaway was put down among the coal heavers, where, stripped to the waist, he shoveled coal into the furnace. The ship was off Cape Hatteras when her rudder post broke and left her at the mercy of wind and waves, the former blowing directly on shore. To put in a new post at sea in rough weather was not to be thought of. Some expedient must be made for gaining steerage way temporarily; then the ship must be taken into port for repairs. The captain planned to fix a chain to each side of the rudder, bring an end of each chain up on to the deck, attach both to a capstan and thus steer the ship.

There was a heavy iron ring on each side of the rudder, and the intention was to pass a rope through the ring and secure an attachment for the chain to the ring by means of the rope. But how get the rope through the rings? When the ship's keel was on a level the rings were five feet under water. When the ship plunged down a wave the stern was lifted and the rings exposed. The problem was to get the ropes through the rings when they were thus raised above the surface. The only way was for a man to be lowered on to the rudder, go down with it and up again, putting the ropes through the rings when they were at the highest point. To suspend a man for the purpose would not avail. He would likely be dashed against the stern. To do his work he must cling to the rudder.

The captain ordered the ship's crew lined up on deck and called for volunteers to do the work. Only one man could work at a time. The reason for calling for a number was that it was supposed several would be disabled before one succeeded.

And so it proved. The first man was lost by losing his grip. The second was hauled up unconscious. The third became benumbed, and the fourth was killed by being dashed against the ship's stern. That ended the volunteering, so far as the crew was concerned, and the work had not been done.

Then the stowaway, who had come on deck to see what was going on,

LIVE TO BE 100

The surest and wisest plan to always keep the kidneys healthy and free from poisonous matter that leads to Bright's disease, dropsy and other serious diseases is to take a few doses of Thompson's Barosma every three months.

It is a harmless vegetable remedy put up in liquid form, is quickly assimilated and gets to the sick kidneys at once. If your kidneys are weak, inflamed or clogged up, Thompson's Barosma will put them in splendid shape again. If they are not diseased, this greatest of all kidney remedies will tone up your system anyway.

The People's Drug Store sells Thompson's Barosma for 50 cts. and $1 a bottle on money back plan. It never fails to cure backache, sideache, sharp shooting pains and all kidney, liver or bladder disease. In conjunction with Barosma always take Thompson's Dandelion and Mandrake Pills (25 cents) when constipation is present. Thompson Medical Co., Titusville, Pa.

The one rope passed through the two rings enabled the crew to get the chains through and thus secure control of the rudder not ten minutes before the ship would have been bumping on the sands. The lives of all being in danger, no one paid any attention to the stowaway till the rudder was pulled by hand to port and the ship, making a curve, stood out to sea. Then the captain hurried to the side of the man who had saved him, his crew and his passengers and, lifting him up, embraced him. The stowaway opened his eyes; the captain called for some liquor and poured it down his throat.

Pneumonia set in, but the stowaway did not lack for attention and recovered. When he was able to leave his room the captain asked him what he could do for him, offering to go to Washington, state his services and see if a commission in the army could not be secured for him. But the deserter said that he would rather be under the orders of one he could depend upon for kind treatment and begged the captain to take him into his service. This was done, and the deserter was placed among the crew under a different name from his own. He was promoted as fast as there were vacancies, studying navigation the while under the captain's tutelage.

IS IT YOUR KIDNEYS?

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles. A Gettysburg Citizen Gives a Valuable Hint.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is where danger often lies. You should realize that these troubles often lead to dropsy or Bright's disease. An effective remedy for weak or diseased kidneys is Doan's Kidney Pills. Read the experience of a resident of Gettysburg who has tested Doan's.

Charles Wilson, farmer, R. F. D. No. 5, Gettysburg, Pa., says: "I have used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and have found them satisfactory for kidney complaint. I had sharp twinges across the small of my back and in my sides. By using Doan's Kidney Pills in time I was rid of these troubles. I strongly recommend this preparation."
